

50,000 join the fun at Redruth Children's centre

Redruth Children's Centre has recently celebrated welcoming their 50,000th visitor through their doors. Sarah Gallop and her children, 2yr old Erin and 6 week old Gabriel, were surprised to discover this and were presented with gifts specially made by Magical Moments. The children's centre in Drump Road has been open for 5 years and provides services and activities for all families and children of the local area. On offer are groups such as Little Learners, Messy

Play, After School Club and courses for Parents amongst many others. They also have independent groups using the centre and these range between First Aid groups, Breastfeeding Support group (Bosom Buddies), Raise the Roof choir and Waterside Brass Band.
